Notice June 2018

All the students are expected to be attending the classes in full uniform from Monday to Friday. On Saturday the students need not be in college uniform but with formal wear as explained in the Handbook and calendar.

The commerce and BBA classes are scheduled to begin at 6.50 am. Late comers beyond 7 am may not be permitted to attend classes for the day.

The science department with BCA classes are scheduled to begin at 8.50 am. Late comers beyond 9 am may not be permitted to attend classes for the day.

The Arts and Humanities classes are to begin by 9.50 am. Late comers after 10 am may not be permitted to attend classes for the day.

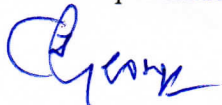

75% attendance is considered mandatory for internal as well as university examinations; the CBCS students are eligible for 3 marks up to 80% attendance, 4 marks up to 90% attendance and 5 marks above 90% attendance.

Early departures are permitted only during the break hours with prior letter written by parents/guardians or for any emergency situation that is informed to the college office.

Early departures are permitted only after 2 hours of class for morning session and 3 hours of class for day session. No request will be entertained in between. Those who cannot attend a minimum of three hours of class need not come to the college for the day as the mandatory attendance is 75%.

Students should not use the Staff Parking Zone. All the parking in the campus is at owners' risk.

Generally mobile phones are not permitted in the campus; however one may use them in the Kiosks/ canteen area. Use of mobile phone in the classrooms, library or building premises without written permission will lead to confiscation and fine.
