

Salesian College NSSers at Bidhyang Busty Camp, Kalimpong.

15 February, 2016, Salesian College Siliguri : The NSS unit of Salesian College Siliguri Campus organised a seven days annual camp 2016 at Bidhyang busty, Kalimpong from 15th February to 21st February. The journey began at around 7:30am with 14 volunteers and two accompanying faculty members. The programme was organised by NSS programme Officer Mr. Sandeep Sundas. The camp focussed on social service, community outreach and a service learning experience for the volunteers. Varied types of community services, keeping the discipline of time management and shared duties were keenly insisted upon by the Programme Officer.

The camp was an enriching experience for all the volunteers with interactive sessions, firewood cooking, game sessions and community services.

The camp was also intended to raise awareness among people on different issues through a skit and a cultural programme. The Programme officer congratulated the volunteers for their responsible cooperation, collaboration and hard work. The camp came to an end with cleaning the surroundings of the community hall where the volunteers stayed during the week and came to a close with words of mutual appreciation and applause by NSS clap. The team reported back to the campus at 2:45pm.

Reported by

Pooja Sharma (Mass Comm and Journalism)

Nidhi Singhal (B.Com General).